Lyrics of Man Against The World

Man Against the World - Survivor

Intro: Soft, melodic guitar riff

Verse 1: Have you ever walked alone at night Like a man against the world No one wants your side A boat against the tide When your faith is shaken you start to break And your heart can't find the words Tossed upon the sand

Chorus: I give you a man against the world All the people cheer till the end Is much your only flesh and blood Now I've walked the path from dark to light And they've yet to come to church

Verse 2: And love, like a distant reminder It tugs at my shoulder It calls me home I shout, can a single voice carry Will I find sanctuary within your arms Someday when the answer's clearer

Chorus: I give you a man against the world All the people cheer till the end Is much your only flesh and blood Now I've walked the path from dark to light And they've yet to come to church

Bridge: But for now I'll walk the night alone Like a man against the world A brand new day will shine Through the avalanche of time Now the road's grown long, but the spirit's strong And the fire within still burns
